GACC Statement on Sha'Carri Richardson Facing a 30-Day Suspension

WASHINGTON, D.C. (July 2, 2021)—The Global Alliance for Cannabis Commerce (GACC) issued the following statement in response to Olympian Sha'Carri Richardson facing a 30-Day suspension from Olympic activities.

“This is yet another example of why cannabis prohibition remains incredibly unwise public policy that should be ended in the US and globally. Sha'Carri Richardson is a phenomenal athlete clearly capable of competing and bringing home the Gold. Her use of cannabis shouldn't bar her from doing so.” -Randal John Meyer, GACC Executive Director

About The Global Alliance for Cannabis Commerce (GACC)

The Global Alliance for Cannabis Commerce (GACC) exists to provide policymakers and legislators with the guidance necessary to take the nascent cannabis industry from the grey market into a global provider of medical and adult-use cannabis products. GACC advocates in front of government policymakers and legislators in order to legalize and regulate the cultivation, manufacture, distribution, or use of medical and adult-use cannabis products globally.
